WHY SEG?

The high risk – high threat world we live in requires that we focus attention on measures necessary to protect people and critical infrastructure/key resources. Strategic Emergency Group LLC (SEG) provides directed specialized emergency management, homeland security, and continuity management consulting through a professional service portfolio with an emphasis on disaster management and counterterrorism.

The SEG team is comprised of an unmatched group of highly seasoned professionals each with extensive experience and subject matter expertise in diverse areas associated with emergency management and homeland security including emergency management leaders, law enforcement and fire service/EMS executives, government officials, military officers, and continuity of operations professionals. SEG provides comprehensive consulting services to a diverse public sector client base which includes emergency management, homeland security, and human service agencies at the local, state and federal level; and, the US Military.

Under our GSA Schedule 84, SIN#426-4F (Emergency Preparedness and First Responder Equipment, Training and Services) we provide a broad range of creative services to assist government organizations in their efforts to protect the public and critical infrastructure/key resources. We consult and advise at the executive level, working with government and agency leadership in developing strategic level policy associated with emergency management and homeland security; and, we provide direct operations level consulting and advisement services to develop operational strategies and tactics.

Emergency Management, Homeland Security and Continuity Services

- Prevention: SEG provides assistance in developing programs associated with all hazard pre-disaster mitigation; and, counterterrorism through effective physical and programmatic security.
- Preparedness: In close coordination with government and agency representatives, SEG planning experts provides all hazards, and risk specific, comprehensive emergency management planning programs coupled with Risk Analyses, and the development of Emergency Operations Plans, Emergency Evacuation Plans, and Continuity of Operations Plans.

- Training and Exercises: SEG subject matter experts are seasoned in the design, develop, conduct, and evaluation of training and exercise programs associated with disaster management, counterterrorism, and continuity of operations programs. SEG training and exercise services meet and exceed standards set forth in Homeland Security Exercise and Evaluation Program (HSEEP) guidelines.
- Response and Recovery: In times of crisis, SEG can deploy a Strategic Emergency Response Team (SERT) comprised of professional emergency management, public safety, law enforcement, and continuity of operations subject matter experts to serve as adjunct and supplemental personnel.
